SPECIAL FORCES FUNCTIONAL PROGRAM

GLOSSARY

July 1985

Field Test Edition

DEFENSE LANGUAGE INSTITUTE
FOREIGN LANGUAGE CENTER

INTRODUCTION

Guidelines for the use of the cumulative glossary to accompany the French Special Forces Functional Language Program.

1. The cumulative glossary is divided into two sections, a French - English section, and an English - French section.
2. Each French vocabulary item is followed by either a number or a letter in parentheses. The numbers indicate the lesson in which the respective vocabulary item was first introduced. The letters, on the other hand, refer to the follow-on "Guerrilla Pamphlets of Instruction" according to the list below.

- (A) Initial Briefing to the Guerrillas
- (B) Individual Weapons Training
- (C) Field Fortifications
- (D) Field Sanitation
- (E) Security and Interior Guard
- (F) Mines and Booby Traps
- (G) Combat Formations
- (H) Immediate Action Drills
- (I) Nuclear, Biological and Chemical Defense
- (J) First Aid
- (K) Passive and Active Air Defense
- (L) Cover and Concealment
- (M) Combat Intelligence
- (N) Field Sketching
- (O) Defensive Weapons Employment
