Most Indonesian public transportations are not on time, they are: buses, trains, and domestic flights. The buses and trains are late due to heavy traffic. Most buses have to go until they are full before leaving. Trains are late, since there is only a limited number of railways, therefore trains must take turns using them.

Understand a Time Schedule

Exercise 1 (Pair Work)

In the following conversation, Dini is inquiring about a flight's schedule from Sinta, a customer service associate at the information center of Garuda Indonesian Airlines. Your instructor will model the conversation for you. Then, practice the conversation with your partner and switch roles. Continue with the corresponding exercise 2.

- Sinta: Garuda Indonesia, selamat siang! Ada yang bisa dibantu?
 Dini: Maaf, Mbak. Saya mau bertanya, penerbangan GA 456 berangkat pukul berapa, ya?
 Sinta: Sebentar, ya. Saya lihat dulu di jadwal. GA 456 berangkat pukul 7.30.
 Dini: Di pintu berapa?
 Sinta: Di pintu sepuluh.
 Dini: Terima kasih banyak!
 Sinta: Sama sama. Selamat menikmati penerbangannya!

Exercise 2 (Pair Work)

Using the conversation in exercise 1 as a model, engage in conversations with each other using the following information tables as a base.

Plan a Trip

Exercise 6 (Pair Work)

Read the conversation below and answer the questions. After that, practice the conversation with your partner. Note how Wawan and Joko address each other and themselves based on their rank difference. Then, come up with different ranks for the characters and do a similar conversation. Be ready when your instructor calls you to perform your conversation.

- Serka Wawan : Pak Joko, liburan minggu depan Bapak mau ke mana?
Peltu Joko: Tidak ke mana-mana. Istriku ingin mendekorasi rumah, jadi aku harus membantu dia. Bagaimana dengan kamu?
Serka Wawan: Kebetulan minggu depan ulang tahun pernikahan kami yang ke 3 jadi saya akan mengajak istri untuk pergi ke Bali.
Peltu Joko: Oh ya aku lupa, istriku bilang kalau kalian akan pergi ke Bali selama seminggu.
Serka Wawan: Ya, Pak. Kami akan datang ke Bali untuk bulan madu kedua dan juga mengunjungi salah satu teman lama istri saya. Kami sudah lama tidak bertemu.
Peltu Joko: Kamu akan ke sana naik apa, Wan?
Serka Wawan Naik pesawat, Pak. Nanti kalau sampai di bandara, shuttle dari hotel Mulia akan menjemput di bandara dan membawa kami ke hotel. Untuk pergi keliling Bali saya pikir saya akan menyewa sepeda motor.
Peltu Joko: Baiklah kalau begitu, selamat berlibur dan selamat atas ulang tahun pernikahan kamu.
Sersan Wawan: Terima kasih, Pak.

Questions:

1. Kapan Serka Wawan akan pergi berlibur?

2. Ke mana mereka akan pergi? Untuk Berapa hari?

3. Apa yang akan dilakukan Peltu Joko di hari libur?

4. Untuk apa Serka Wawan dan istrinya pergi berlibur?

5. Transportasi apa saja yang digunakan oleh Serka Wawan selama dia berlibur?

When for some reason a ticket is not used, but it cannot be returned or exchanged for money either, the expression for that ticket is "hangus"; which literally means "burned". When you have a ticket on hand, it is important to find out about the cancellation or return policy so that your ticket does not become "hangus" if you have to cancel your trip.

Exercise 8 (Pair Work)

In the following conversation, Dina tries to cancel her reservation. Is she successful in her effort? Read the conversation, and then practice it with your partner. Switch roles.

Dina: Selamat siang!
Nusantara Travel: Siang. Ada yang bisa dibantu?
Dina: Saya ingin membatalkan reservasi tiket pesawat saya.
Nusantara Travel: Atas nama siapa?
Dina: Dina Mariana. Saya memesan tiket Garuda Indonesia tujuan Jakarta tanggal 12 Maret 2003
Nusantara Travel: Tiket pesawat Garuda Indonesia tujuan ke Jakarta tanggal 12 Maret 2003 untuk dua orang, berangkat pukul 20.12 WIB, atas nama Nyonya Dina Mariana dan Ratih Putri.

Dina: Terima kasih.

Exercise 9 (Pair Work)

Pretend that you are going to cancel your reservation at the travel agency. Your partner will be the person who handles your call. Have a conversation based on the example on Exercise 6.

TIP OF THE DAY

There are many types of buses in Indonesia, they are: small buses, big buses, AC buses, and non-AC buses. An AC bus is usually more expensive than a non-AC or regular bus, and it is more convenient. Indonesia doesn't have a subway yet, at least until 2020 when the first subway will serve Jakarta - Bogor - Tangerang - Bekasi (Jabotabek) business districts. In buses, often times there are more people than seats available, so people have to stand in those buses. During this situation, be careful of pickpockets who usually work in groups to steal your wallet.

Use Taxi and/or a City Bus

Exercise 10 (Pair Work)

You are going to another city using the public bus, but you do not know which bus goes there. Pretend that your partner is Indonesian, and you are asking him/her questions about how to use the public bus. Look at the example of the conversation below. Switch roles once you are done with the activity.

Anton: Maaf, bisa saya bertanya? Bis jurusan ke Bandung yang mana?

Dono: Wah, tidak ada.

Anton: Aduh, lalu kalau saya mau ke Bandung bagaimana?

Dono: Pertama dari sini Anda naik bis jurusan Cibubur kemudian turun di terminal bis Cibubur. Dari Cibubur, Anda naik bis jurusan Bandung. Kalau tidak salah bis jurusan Bandung namanya Parahyangan.

Anton: Hmm, bis jurusan ke Cibubur yang mana?

Dono: Itu di sebelah kanan pintu keluar. Bis yang berwarna merah. Namanya bis SATHIA.

Anton: Berapa ongkos ke Cibubur?

Dono: Rp. 2.500,00.

Anton: Terima kasih.

Dono: Sama sama. Selamat jalan!

TIP OF THE DAY

"BBM" stands for "Bahan Bakar Minyak" (petrol fuel), which comprises all fossil fuel products such as bensin (gasoline), solar (diesel fuel), and minyak tanah (kerosene).

Use the Service Station

Exercise 11 (Pair Work)

The following conversation happens at a typical Indonesian gas station. What can you tell about the manner in which gas is sold in Indonesia? What are the services available according to the conversation? What can you tell about the situation of the gas prices? Practice the conversation with your partner and switch roles. Continue with the corresponding Exercise 12.

Pegawai pom: Berapa liter, Mas?

Pembeli: 5 liter saja.

Pegawai pom: Mau yang premium atau yang biasa?

Pembeli: Premium.

Pegawai pom: (fills the tank)
Semuanya Rp40.500,00.

Pembeli: Oh ya, saya perlu oli juga, satu kaleng saja.

Pegawai pom: Baiklah, kalau begitu semuanya 60.500 Rupiah.

Pembeli: Ini uangnya. Wah, sekarang bensin mahal ya?

Pegawai Pom: Iya, saya dengar harga BBM mau naik lagi lima puluh persen.

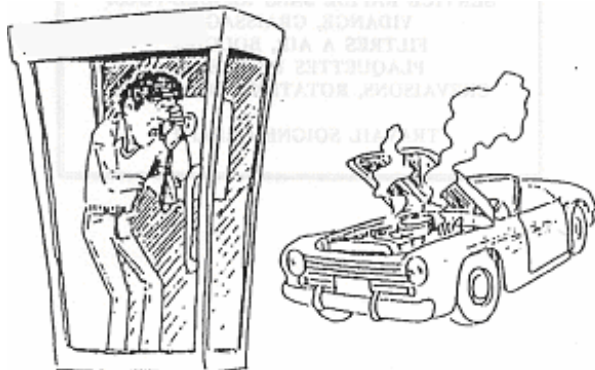

Exercise 12 (Pair Work)

Pretend you are going to buy gas in a “Pom Bensin”. Your partner will play the role of the attendant. Change roles after you are finished with the first activity. Look at the example for the conversation.

Exercise 13 (Pair Work)

You are going to call a tow truck and your partner will play the role of the operator. Have phone conversations based on the following conversation using the authentic list of tow truck services in Jakarta and Bandung below. Switch roles.

TIP OF THE DAY

Public buses don't require advance booking, but for more comfortable transportation such as an executive bus, trains, and executive boats, advance booking is needed.

Exercise 14 (Pair Work)

Get Train/Plane/Bus/Boat Tickets

In the following conversation, Nana is purchasing train tickets. Study the conversation and find expressions that are new to you. Discuss with your instructor. Practice the conversation with your partner and switch roles.

 Nana: Untuk satu orang, atas nama Nana.
 Penjual Tiket: Tiket pulang pergi atau sekali jalan?
 Nana: Satu kali jalan saja.
 Penjual Tiket: Berangkat tanggal berapa?
 Nana: Tanggal 19 Agustus 2003

Exercise 15 (Pair Work)

Have a conversation with your partner about purchasing a ticket. Get a ticket for your whole family. Look at the example of the conversation above, and use the following tables as a base for your conversation. Can you tell what the information under "datang" is about? Based on the expressions that you learned from exercise 11, what do you think "pp" stands for?

Tanahabang		- Solo
	Datang	Berangkat	Tiba	Harga tiket

Exercise 16 (Pair Work)

Read the following passage, and then answer the questions. Discuss your answers with your partner.

kemacetan di Manado

Transportasi darat di Indonesia mempunyai masalah yang cukup berat. Karena kurangnya dana, pemerintah tidak mampu untuk membangun jalan baru dan fasilitas transportasi lainnya seperti rel kereta api atau jalan bebas hambatan. Akibatnya jumlah jalan yang ada tidak mampu menampung jumlah kendaraan yang terlalu banyak dan kemacetan tidak bisa dihindari.

Transportasi air juga mengalami masalah yang serius yaitu masalah keamanan. Banyak kapal atau perahu tidak memenuhi standar keselamatan seperti menyediakan pelampung, atau perahu cadangan (sekoci). Kapal-kapal dan perahu-perahu sering beroperasi dengan jumlah penumpang yang melebihi muatan. Contohnya, sebuah perahu hanya mampu menampung 55 orang, 100 orang dibiarkan masuk ke dalam perahu untuk mendapatkan uang lebih banyak. Karena itu, sering terjadi kecelakaan di laut karena perahu kelebihan muatan.

Transportasi udara di Indonesia, akhir-akhir ini mengalami perkembangan. Semakin banyak perusahaan penerbangan yang membuka bisnis di Indonesia. Harga tiket untuk pesawat terbang semakin murah dan semakin banyak orang menggunakan transportasi udara daripada beberapa tahun lalu.

Questions:

1. What can you conclude from each paragraph?

Exercise 16 (Pair Work)

2. Based on the illustration, can you guess what the meaning of the word "kemacetan" is? Gather into groups and compare the situations in Indonesia and the US under the theme "kemacetan".

Exercise 17 (Pair Work)

Tell your partner about your memorable experience that relates to travels. Describe how you prepared for the travel. What did you bring? Which travel agent did you use? What happened when you arrived at your destination? What did you do there? Who did you write to when you were there? Did you meet anybody interesting? When your partner is telling his story, ask for additional information and explanation. Write down your partner's story and be prepared to share it with the rest of the class. Use the conjunction "ketika" or "waktu" to show that the events happened in the past. Observe the following examples and find out how they are used by comparing the first two sentences with the rest of the examples.

Waktu kamu di Inggris, apa kamu sempat pergi ke Skotlandia?
(When you were in England, did you have time to go to Scotland?)

Ketika saya sampai di hotel, saya cepat-cepat ke kamar mandi.
(When I arrived at the hotel, I went in a hurry to the bathroom.)

Kapan kamu pergi ke Inggris?
(When did you go to England?)

Berapa lama kamu tinggal di sana?
(How long did you stay there?)

Apa saja yang kamu bawa?
(What are the things that you bring?)

Saya hanya membawa dua tas ransel.
(I only bring two backpacks.)

Compound Question Words (2)

In this lesson you have encountered more compound question words. Remember that compound question words always go together and cannot be separated or their order switched around in case you reverse your sentence. Observe the following examples:

1. Kamu ke Bali naik apa?
Naik apa kamu ke Bali?
2. Travel agennya bilang apa?
Bilang apa travel agennya?
3. Kamu pergi ke Bali untuk apa?
Untuk apa kamu pergi ke Bali?
4. Anda berangkat tanggal berapa?
Tanggal berapa Anda berangkat?

Take turns asking and answering questions about your plans using the structures above. Have a conversation about his plans for next week, next month, and next year.

Exercise 2 (Class Work)

Reverse the following sentences if possible.

1. Tiket kereta eksekutif ke Jakarta berapa, Pak?
2. Lokasinya di mana, Pak?
3. Apa jenis mobilnya?
4. Berapa nomor kendaraannya, Pak?
5. Pukul berapa kita akan sampai di Bali?
6. Kamu akan ke sana naik apa, Wan?
7. Pak Joko, liburan minggu depan Bapak mau ke mana?
8. Anda ingin berangkat tanggal berapa?
9. Apakah Anda akan membayar tunai atau memakai kartu kredit?
10. Berapa lama Anda akan bekerja di Indonesia?

Contrast: Kapan vs Kalau, ketika & waktu

Because "kapan" is used to ask about the time of an event, some English speakers have a tendency to generalize its meaning as equal to "when" in English. This is not entirely true. "Kapan" is a question word, while "when" is used as a question word and a conjunction that has a time orientation. In contrast, Indonesians use "kalau", "ketika" and "waktu" for time-oriented conjunctions.

Question Word: kapan

Indonesian: kapan	English: when as a question word
Kapan Bapak ditempatkan di Aceh?	When were you stationed in Aceh?
Kapan Ibu akan ditugaskan di Papua?	When is the summer?

Conjunction: kalau, ketika/waktu

"Kalau" can be used to talk about future events, while "ketika" and "waktu" are used to talk about past events.

Indonesian: kalau, ketika/waktu	English: when as a conjunction
Kamu jangan menangis kalau saya pergi, ya?	Don't you cry when I am gone, OK?
Saya bertemu dia waktu mengunjungi Amerika.	I met her when I was visiting the US.
Ketika sampai di Flores, kami beristirahat untuk beberapa hari.	When we arrive in Flores, we took a rest for a couple of days.

Do not forget that "kalau" can also mean "if". Observe the difference of its meanings in the following examples.

Bagaimana kalau saya berangkat sekarang?	What if I leave now?
Kalau kita sampai di Yogya nanti, kita akan makan ayam goreng.	When we arrive in Yogya, we are going to eat fried chicken.

Exercise 3 (Pair Work)

Put either kapan, kalau, ketika or waktu so the sentences make sense. Discuss your answer with the rest of the class.

1. _____ kamu akan pergi?
2. _____ kami ke Indonesia tahun lalu, kami menggunakan kapal.
3. Mereka akan berenang _____ sudah sampai di pantai nanti.
4. _____ saya di Jerman tahun lalu, saya mengunjungi Koln.
5. _____ saya membeli tiketnya sekarang, apa saya akan mendapat diskon?
6. Apakah mereka tahu _____ di pesawat kita tidak boleh merokok?
7. _____ kartuposnya dikirim? Saya belum menerimanya sampai hari ini.

Tourist Destinations

During Lebaran Day, many tourist destinations in Indonesia are packed with domestic tourists. Many tourist spots such as zoos, amusement parks, etc., hold special events to celebrate Lebaran, such as: music concerts (mostly Dangdut – a very famous style of music with singers), a circus, etc.

It is very hard to find tickets during this period. The same problem happens during New Year's, although it is not as crowded as it is during Lebaran Day.

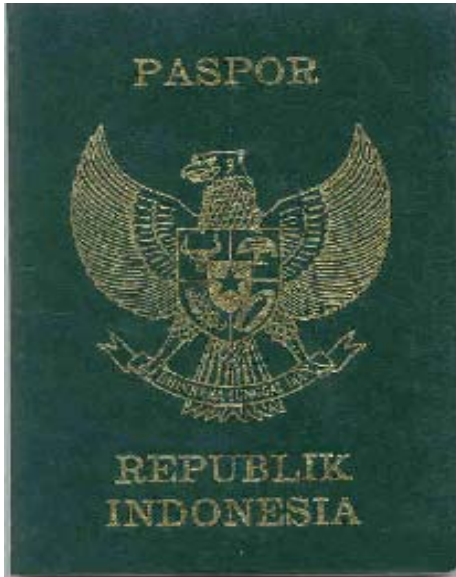

The following are some famous tourist spots in Indonesia are Pantai Kuta in Bali, Pantai Senggigi in Lombok, Dunia Fantasi Ancol in Jakarta, Malioboro in Yogyakarta, Gunung Bromo in East Java, Taman Safari in Jakarta, Taman Mini Indonesia Indah in Jakarta, Puncak in Bandung, and Bintan resorts in Bintan Island, Bunaken coastal areas in Sulawesi, and Toba Lake in Sumatra.

Below are some pictures of tourist destination in Indonesia.

Indonesian passport

The following are some examples of Indonesian passports. The green passport on the top left is being phased out and gradually replaced with the one on the right. These passports, known as "paspor hijau", is intended for general purposes. The blue one on the bottom, known as "paspor biru" is a service passport.

Activity 3

Read the following passage, and then answer the questions.

"Subway", "Busway", "Waterway",... "No Way"?

Belum reda kontroversi tentang busway, warga Jakarta kembali diberi alternatif transportasi massal berupa monorail dan bahkan angkutan alternatif lewat sungai (waterway) yang diharapkan bisa menjadi bagian solusi kemacetan.

Soal kemacetan di Jakarta memang tidak ada habisnya. Beberapa studi tentang transportasi Jakarta memperlihatkan terjadinya penurunan kecepatan rata-rata kendaraan pada koridor utama dari 20-30 km/jam pada tahun 1995 menjadi 5-15 km/jam pada tahun 2002.

Untuk menangani kemacetan di jalan-jalan utama Jakarta, Pemerintah Propinsi DKI telah memprioritaskan penanganan 12 koridor. Dua yang menjadi prioritas adalah Timur-Barat (Pulo Gadung-Grogol) dan Utara-Selatan (Fatmawati-Kota). Dalam penanganan koridor utama Utara-Selatan, direncanakan proyek mass rapid transit (MRT) berbasis rel yang dikenal dengan subway. Rencana awalnya, dari arah Fatmawati hingga Senayan (golf course) akan merupakan struktur layang (elevated rail), sedangkan dari Senayan ke Monas akan berupa struktur di bawah tanah (underground).

Total project cost sekitar 1,2 miliar dollar AS untuk track sepanjang 12,4 km. Dengan modifikasi struktur konstruksi dan penggunaan beberapa fasilitas PT KAI, biaya dapat diturunkan hingga sekitar 500 juta dollar AS. Usulan baru ini masih punya masalah dana sehingga belum ada kepastian pelaksanaannya.
